4. Principle Responsibility of Employees for Preservation of Documents

All the Employees in the permanent rolls of the Company are responsible for taking into account the potential impacts on preservation of the documents in their work area and their decision to retain/preserve or destroy documents pertaining to their area.

5. Safety and Integrity of Records & Documents

The Company should design appropriate safety procedures to safeguard the documents and records and to enable a return to normal operating with minimal disruption. The Company should make appropriate provisions for the backup of its digital collections, including the provision of offsite security copies. The backup copies are actively maintained to ensure their continued viability. The Company should ensure that the digital collections and technical infrastructure required to manage and access them can be restored in the event of an emergency.

6. Classification of Documents to be preserved/retained

A. As per SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

Regulation 9 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, provides that the listed entity shall have a policy for preservation of documents, approved by its Board of Directors, classifying them in at least two categories as follows:

- i) Documents whose preservation is permanent in nature; and
- ii) Documents with preservation period of not less than 8 years after completion of the relevant transactions.

Based on the above, the Company has classified the documents for preservation during the course of its business, as given below:

- a. Documents whose preservation is permanent in nature. An indicative list is enclosed herewith as Annexure A.

- b. Documents with preservation period of not less than 8 years after completion of the relevant transactions. An indicative list is enclosed herewith as Annexure B.
- c. Documents with preservation period of minimum 5 years after completion of the relevant transactions. An indicative list is enclosed herewith as Annexure C. and
- d. Preservation of documents under other statutes as Annexure D.

B. As per Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002

In terms of section 12 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, the Company shall maintain a record of all transactions, the nature and value of which may be prescribed, whether such transactions comprise of a single transaction or a series of transactions integrally connected to each other, and where such series of transactions take place within a month.

As per Rule 3 of the Rules notified by Notification No. 9/2005, the Company shall maintain a record of:

- a) all cash transactions of the value of more than ₹ 10 lakhs or its equivalent in foreign currency;
- b) all series of cash transactions integrally connected to each other which have been valued below ₹ 10 lakh or its equivalent in foreign currency where such series of transactions have taken place within a month and the monthly aggregate exceeds an amount of ₹ 10 lakhs or its equivalent in foreign currency;
- c) all transactions involving receipts by non-profit organisations of value more than ₹ 10 lakhs, or its equivalent in foreign currency;
- d) all cash transactions where forged or counterfeit currency notes or bank notes have been used as genuine and where any forgery of a valuable security has taken place;
- e) all suspicious transactions whether or not made in cash.
- f) all cross border wire transfers of the value of more than ₹ 5 lakhs or its equivalent in foreign currency where either the origin or destination of fund is in India; and
- g) all purchase and sale by any person of immovable property valued at ₹ 50 lakhs or more that is registered by the reporting entity, as the case may be.

The above referred records shall contain all necessary information specified by the Regulator to permit reconstruction of individual transaction including the following information:-

- a) the nature of the transactions;
- b) the amount of the transaction and the currency in which it was denominated;
- c) the date on which the transaction was conducted; and
- d) the parties to the transaction.

The Company shall take appropriate steps to evolve a system for proper maintenance and preservation of account information in a manner that allows data to be retrieved easily and quickly whenever required or when requested by the competent authorities.

Further, the Company shall maintain for at least ten years from the date of cessation of transaction between the company and the client, all necessary records of transactions, both domestic or international, which shall permit reconstruction of individual transactions (including the amounts and types of currency involved if any) so as to provide, if necessary, evidence for prosecution of persons involved in criminal activity.

The Company shall ensure that records pertaining to the identification of the customer and his address (e.g. copies of documents like passports, identity cards, driving licenses, PAN, utility bills etc.) obtained while opening the account and during the course of business relationship, are properly preserved for at least ten years after the business relationship is ended. The identification records and transaction data shall be made available to the competent authorities upon request.

7. Custody of the Documents

The Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer are severally authorised to assign such persons as they may deem fit, as the authorised person.

Subject to the Applicable Laws, the custody of the documents shall be with the Authorised Person. Where the Authorised Person tenders resignation or is transferred from one location of the Company to another, such Person shall hand over all the relevant documents, lock and key, access control or password, or Compact Disc, other storage devices or such other Documents and devices in his possession under this Policy to such persons as may be decided by the Managing Director or Chief Operating Officer.

8. Modes of preservation

- a) The Documents may be preserved in
 - i) Physical form, or
 - ii) Electronic Form
- b) The Authorised person is expected to observe the compliance of statutory requirements as per applicable laws.
- c) The preservation of Documents should be such as to ensure that there is no tampering, alteration, destruction or anything which endangers the content, authenticity, utility or accessibility of the Documents.
- d) The preservation of documents should be either at the premises occupied by the Company or with a third party service provider/ professional document keeping entity.
- e) The preserved Documents must be accessible at all reasonable times. Access may be controlled by Authorized Person, so as to ensure integrity of the Documents and prohibit unauthorized access.
- f) The preserved documents should be verified at regular intervals, whether the same is stored in Company's premises or third party service provider/ professional document keeping entity. The condition of the documents stored and the quantum of the documents stored shall be verified and reconciled by the Authorised Person at a regular interval of not more than 3 months.

9. Suspension of Record Disposal in the event of Litigation or Claims

In case the Company is served with any notice for request of documents or any employee becomes aware of a governmental investigation or commencement of any litigation against the Company, such employee shall inform the Top Management and any further disposal of documents shall be suspended until such time as the Top Management with the due advice from the legal counsel determine otherwise. The Top Management in such case shall inform all the employee by mail under “User list” of the need to retain the documents and suspension of disposal of the same.

10. Destruction of Documents

- a) Destruction as a normal administrative practice usually occurs because the records are duplicated, unimportant or for short term use only. This applies to both Physical and Electronic Documents.
- b) The temporary Documents, shall be destroyed after the relevant or prescribed period, by the Authorised Person in whose custody the Documents are stored, after the prior approval from the Managing Director/Chief Operating Officer or any other authority as required under the Applicable Law pursuant to which the Documents have been preserved.

11. Conversion of the form in which the Documents are preserved

- a) The physical Documents preserved may be converted, whenever required or felt necessary, into electronic form to ensure ease in maintenance of records and efficient utilization of space.
- b) This will be undertaken by the executives and staff, after obtaining prior approval from the Authorised Person.

12. Periodical Review of the Policy by the Top Management

The policy should be reviewed periodically by the Top Management and amendments effected shall be subject to the approval of the Board. The Top Management may also review the policy on document retention to comply with any local, state, central legislations that may be promulgated from time to time.

13. Amendment

The Board authorize the Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer, severally to amend the indicative lists annexed to this policy as they may deem fit or from time to time. The Board has the power to amend the entire policy and the decision of the Board in this respect shall be final and binding.
